LIST ONE: The overarching list

Information that needs to be flagged red. Continue to List 2 after checking this list.

#	Category	If a document has this, it is a no	Examples
1	Classified information	Anything classified for national defense or foreign policy reasons	Classification markings; details that together could reveal something classified Example classification markings: (C) (S) (TS) (CUI) It doesn't matter if there is more to the marking, it would still mark as a red flag. Ex: (S//NF/PROPIN) (C//FRD) (//GBR S) (TS//SI/TK) (S//RD) (S//REL) (TS//REL TO USA, AUS, CAN, GBR) (S//RD-N) Additional info can be found here: https://www.cdse.edu/Portals/124/Documents/jobaids/information/Marking_National_Security_Information.pdf
3	Protected by another law	Information a different law says must be withheld	Names, ranks, and duty details of personnel currently in overseas, sensitive, or routinely deployed units; sensitive information from foreign governments; critical infrastructure security details (specifics about a particular locations defensive posture, etc.)
4	Business secrets	Trade secrets and confidential company financial or commercial information	Future contractor bids and proposals, contract financials, technical data a company was paid to develop
5	Internal deliberations and legal advice	Drafts, advice, and discussions that happen before a decision, and communications with lawyers	Sources that include draft documents, attorney advice, ongoing safety investigation material
6	Personal privacy	Personal details that would be an unwarranted invasion of privacy	Home addresses, personal phone numbers and emails, spouse/kid's names and personal medical information

#	Category	If a document has this, it is a no	Examples
7	Law enforcement records	Investigation material that could harm a case, a person, or public safety	Witness statements, confidential sources, investigation techniques, security and emergency response plans
8	Financial regulation	Reports about the examination or condition of financial institutions	Bank examination reports
9	Wells	Geological and geophysical data and maps about wells	Well maps and survey data

List 2

- Animal testing
- Directed energy
- New weapons or weapon systems, significant modifications or improvements to existing weapons or weapon systems, equipment, or techniques
- Unmanned aerial system/unmanned aerial vehicle/remotely piloted aircraft (drones and remotely piloted aircraft)
- Cyber warfare, cyber vulnerabilities, cyber research
- F-22/F-35
- Unexplained physiologic events/on-board oxygen generating system/hypobaria / hypoxia (unexplained physiological events, white brain matter, etc.)
- High-energy lasers and particle beam technology; and arms control treaty implementation
- Military activities or applications in space, nuclear weapons, including weapon-effects research
- Military operations, significant exercises, and operations security (details of future war plans)
- Chemical and biological warfare issues; biological and toxin research
- Information related to current operations, readiness or posture for future operations
- Vulnerabilities that could impact the readiness of units or operations involving other countries
- Details of number, location, and capabilities of operational assets
- Detailed descriptions of a sequence of events in an operational or training scenario, or exercise to include major exercises such as readiness assessment/evaluations or Flag/major training exercises
- Detailed descriptions that reveal capability of unique command and control node (Space Operations Centers, Air Operations Centers, etc.)
- Information that reveals tactics, techniques and procedures
- Deployment schedules or locations
- Originates, or is proposed for release, in the Washington D.C. metropolitan area
- Is, or has the potential to become, an item of national or international interest
- References President and Secretary of Defense authority
- Affects national security policy or foreign relations
- Concerns subjects of potential controversy among DoD components or with other federal agencies
- Is information that is presented by a DoD employee who, by virtue of rank, position, or expertise, would be considered an official DoD spokesperson (e.g. if the author is an O-7 or higher)
- Contains technical data, including data developed under contract or independently developed and controlled by the International Traffic in Arms Regulations

- Any other contemporary topic that is designated by the Defense Office of Prepublication and Security Review (DOPSR) (such as personnel readiness)
- Work in conjunction with a sister service or other DoD component that has had no coordination documented when we receive materials
- Work with another Department of the Air Force installation or wing that has had no coordination documented when we receive materials
- Information on unit's critical information list (numbers of personnel, planes, equipment, etc.)
- Sensitive space information
- Materials reporting the release of, or Department of the Air Force response to, the release of, compounds containing Perfuoroalkyl substances (PFAS), including Perfluorooctanoic acid (PFOA) or Perfoluorooctane sulfonate (PFOS).